

UK: Global Fashion & Textiles

Summer

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Based at the University of Surrey, in Guildford, the UK: Global Fashion and Textiles program will provide global enrichment for students in management and design focused programs within the TATM department of the College of Textiles. Excursions to London, Bath, Oxford, and more will provide students with an opportunity to engage with textile industries throughout England.

ACADEMICS

This program provides students with a broad overview of the impacts of history and culture on the contemporary fashion and textile industry with concrete evidence from the city of London and additional excursions across the region. Student activities and assignments will focus on an analysis of the past and observation of current phenomena to imagine the future of the global fashion and textile industries. Four course lectures (each course) will be delivered prior to departure using a flexible format. Students must satisfy any course pre-requisites.
